

Workshop on Russian and East European Politics

Location: Garystraße 55, 14195 Berlin, Room B

20 February
13.30-14.40	Keynote: Ted Gerber	Homeownership and Civic Engagement in Four post-Soviet Countries
14.55-15.35	Rebecca Kittel	The Rhetorics of Zeitenwende: Legitimising Support for Ukraine in Parliamentary Debates
15.50-16.30	Katharina Algaer	China's foreign policy discourses in contemporary Russia: Dangerous neighbour or beneficial partner? An analysis of discourses from 2000 to 2022
16.30-17.10	Guram Kvaratskhelia	Re-autocratization of Georgian Politics
17.25-18.05	Grace Yang	The Chilling Effect on Chinese Academia: A Case of the Russia-Ukraine War
18.05-18.45	Victor Rudakov	Early-career gender wage gap in Europe
21 February
09.00-09.40	Oleg Zhuravlev, Tatiana Kasimova	Local activism and the movement of independent municipal deputies in Russia on the eve of war and after
09.40-10.20	Zuleykha Mailzada	The Brezhnev Era and Infectious Diseases: A Critical Realist Perspective on Soviet Epidemiology
10.30-11.00	Yuhe Wu	Adapting to Survive: Candidate Renewal and United Russia's Electoral Resilience
11.00-11.40	Vlad Siiutkin	How does institutional ambiguity endanger dictators? Theoretical framework and a case analysis from Russia
11.40-12.20	Martha Stolze	Pro-Russian media leveraging the anti-gender turn? Predictors for believing anti-gender messaging in Germany
13.20-14.00	Irina Busygina	State-driven regionalism: The case of the Russian Far East
14.00-14.30	Victor Rudakov	The impact of sanctions on human capital in sanctioned countries
14.40-15.20	Ming Ma	Effective Parroting? Evaluating Effectiveness of China and Russia's Aligned Narratives
15.20-16.00	Andrei Yakovlev	Russian business-government relations before and after 2022: key actors and patterns
16.00-16.40	Alexander Libman	Why Dictators Use Newspeak